24. (?)

The record sheet on which this office was reproduced was almost totally unreadable. The name of the office was completely illegible. Some of the postmaster names barely readable appeared to be Allen Cox, Mrs. Mary Tucker, Gaynell Donahoo, and Curtis (?). The years of the office's existence seemed to be between 1937 and 1954. It was discontinued in 1954. Its location was probably around the Alligator-Duncan area. Could it have been Rochdale, Gum Pond, Dixie or Eldridge. Those were all communities in that area.

ERRATA

"The missing page- as you can see from the list on p.3--runs from no. 29, Concordia (Third) through no. 33, Lake Beulah. It includes:

on map 29 Concordia (Third) on map 30 Calladora
on map 31 Sporing
on map 32 Gladstone
33 Lake Beulah

These were all small offices. They are all shown on map, except 'Beulah' is shown, not 'Lake Beulah.' Most likely the same."
