Mirrors reflect appearances . . . babbling streams of water reflect the beauty of nature around them . . . shiny, well-polished cars reflect the passers-by as they move onward to their destination.

The 1960 TIGER TALK is composed of the many reflections in the activities of the SHS students for the school year '59-'60. It shows their appearances, their feelings, and gives a great clue to the reason for faith in the teenagers of today - our leaders of tomorrow.

Peruse the following pages, which will reflect the joys and friendships among the students of SHS.

DEDICATION

Why do we dedicate the TIGER TALK to you?

BECAUSE you came through these doors at dawn and didn't leave till dark, giving your day to youth - at times not a very rewarding occupation . . . BECAUSE you helped to make this year of '60 the best year ever . . . BECAUSE you were there when we needed you most, we give to you the most precious gift we have to offer - the dedication of a year of work, a year of memories.

We dedicate our yearbook to you, Mrs. May Belenchia.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

These are perilous times in which we live and work. This statement was probably true of other periods of our history; however, at no other stage of our political, economic, and cultural development have we been faced with more pressing problems than confront us today. Our very existence as a free people is being seriously challenged. If we are to survive and remain free we must develop in each new generation the kinds of beliefs, values, and concepts which will continue to make self-government in our nation a functioning reality. To you as young Americans the great test has now come. To pass this test you must acquire a knowledge and understanding of these crucial issues which would destroy our American heritage.

Congratulations to the staff and others who have devoted so much effort to the publication of this fine yearbook.

Sincerely,

J. E. Hurdle
Superintendent
