

IN MEMORIAM

JOE OVERSTREET was one of the finest people we have ever known. Although he was with us only one year, he endeared himself to all by his friendliness and consideration for others.

His memory is beautiful and tender, and through the years we shall look back and cherish the moments we had with him.

DICKIE BURNSIDE

"Worrying never made men great, so why should I worry?"

MEMI MURPHREE

"I have the simplest tastes; I'm always satisfied with the best."

JOE CAOGACCIA

"Be kind to dumb animals; especially women."

ELEANOR RILEY

"If at first you don't succeed, try a grin."

JOE HOWARD DEPRIEST

"A leader of men, a follower of women."

MARGARET ROSE REAVES

"You name it; she does it well."

WARREN BAILEY

"He came to school to get a general idea of things."

BONNIE UTZ

"Life is what you make it."

JAMES BERRY

"I wish to make no enemies."

PEGGY EDWARDS

"It takes thirteen muscles to frown and only two to grin; why strain yourself?"

ANDY BROOKS

"I have both feet firmly planted in the air."

MARY LILLIAN PHILEN

"A combination of keen sense, common sense, and quite a lot of nonsense."

RICHARD FAVA

"Although he's no surgeon, he's done a great deal of cutting up."

BARBARA BUTLER

"Pretty, charming, and full of fun; she's made a friend of everyone."

HARMON FEATHER

"A closed mouth catches no flies,"

JANE HAYMON

"My high school days had many delights, but could not compare with my high school nights!"

JACK GAZELLE

"A guy with personality plus, and certainly tops with all of us!"

JAN DAVIS

"Lovely to look at, delightful to know."
