

FAVORITE EXPRESSIONS.

Mr. Woodard: "Pupils, we must all cooperate."

Miss Hawkins: "Now, dear little girls, let me see each of you attending to your own affairs."

Miss Clisby: "You will NEVER finish this Cicero at this rate."

Miss Brinker: "This history is very interesting. Why don't you study it?"

Miss Leslie: "NEVER use slang and try to improve your vocabularies."

Miss Ervin: "Will you people ever learn how long to cook a hard egg?"

Mr. Hume: "We'l, now, it's like 'is"—etc.

MARRIAGE OF AN OLD FRIEND

Lynch High School and the entire little city of West Point was interested when it was announced that Mr. Spurgeon Hood and Miss Susie Leigh Johnson would be married on Dec. 27th. The happy event was solemnized at the home of the bride on the appointed day, attended by many friends of both bride and groom. Rev. E. J. Caswell said the beautiful words that joined their destinies.

Mr. Hood resided in West Point for many years and is highly esteemed here, but his most successful terms of 1915-'16 as Professor of Mathematics and Director of Athletics is L. H. S. won for him the love of both young and old.

Miss Susie Leigh was reared in West Point also, and is much loved in consequence of her real true worth. She was never more lovely or composed, but judging from the violent shaking of his knees during the ceremony, I am sure Mr. Hood had put aside his dignity and felt somewhat like a frightened school-boy.

L. H. S. and White and Green wish them many happy and prosperous years in their far away Western home.

MR. REDUS' OFFER

Mr. Redus had a bright thought one day. 'Twas this: "I like a new ad each week, but the boy always calls for it when I'm busy. Why not have it written by the school children?"

At once he discussed the matter with the management of White and Green, and offered $1.00 each month for the best ad.—himself to be the judge. This month the Senior Class entered the contest, and 33 ads. were handed him. His decision was as follows:

Alonzo Moore, first and the prize winner; Pauline Weddle, Marie Howard, Lalouise Howard, Walterine Carpenter, favorable mention.

Next month the Junior Class will contest. Mr. Redus was so pleased with the interest shown that he has given his subscription for next year.

A VISIT FROM RUTH

The Senior Class was shocked and saddened when the message came announcing the death of the father of our former classmate, Ruth Simril. To express our sympathy the class sent a beautiful floral.

Ruth was a member of our class three years. Last summer she moved to Oklahoma. Her bright and happy face was always an inspiration to us, causing us to forget our troubles.

Before returning to her western home, she visited the school. When we returned from the Latin class she was seated on the rostrum. We gave her a hearty welcome as Miss Hawkins gave us the use of the north room to talk over "old times." We were glad to hear about her school and proud of her when we heard she is the president of the Chorus Club. This is quite an honor for a stranger to receive, as there are several hundred in the High School.

TEN COMMANDMENTS FOR A SENIOR.

- I. Thou shalt not go to school before eight o'clock.
- II. Thou shalt not spend less than two hours on Cicero.
- III. Thou shalt not ever miss a question in English History.
- IV. Thou shalt not forget to give a reason for every statement in Geometry propositions.
- V. Thou shalt not ever use an ungrammatical expression, for that is a stamp of ignorance.
- VI. Thou shalt not fail to answer a single question in the Physics note book.
- VII. Thou shalt not set a bad example for the lower classes by chewing gum.
- VIII. Thou shalt not take to thyself any patronizing airs because of being a Senior, remembering that thou wast once an humble eight grader.
- IX. Thou shalt not go to the picture show, skating rink or any other place of amusement except on Friday night.
- X. Thou shalt not get off thy dignity, even for one moment, always remembering that thou art a high and mighty Senior.

BY VOTE OF HIGH SCHOOL

According to custom, the High School recently decided some perplexing questions. The result of the vote was as follows:

Best student (boy) Beckett Howorth
Best student (girl) Lucile Miller
Prettiest girl, Virginia East
Handsomest boy, William F. Chamberlain
Most popular girl, Frances Cottrell
Most popular boy, Eugene Carothers
Most probable old maid, Flossie Nicholas
Most probable old bachelor, Beckett Howorth
Best football player, John Mains
Most dignified girl, Flossie Nicholas
Most dignified boy, Beckett Howorth
Most stylish girl, Frances Cottrell
Best musician (girl) Frances Cottrell
Best business boy, William F. Chamberlain
Best all around man, Eugene Carothers
Most irrepressible boy, Powell Millard
Most irrepressible girl, Hazel McClure

The Teachers

Kind hearts are more than corsets
And simple faith than woman's blood."

May-1918 W. E. Hawkins

Class Photographs

Walterine Carpenter

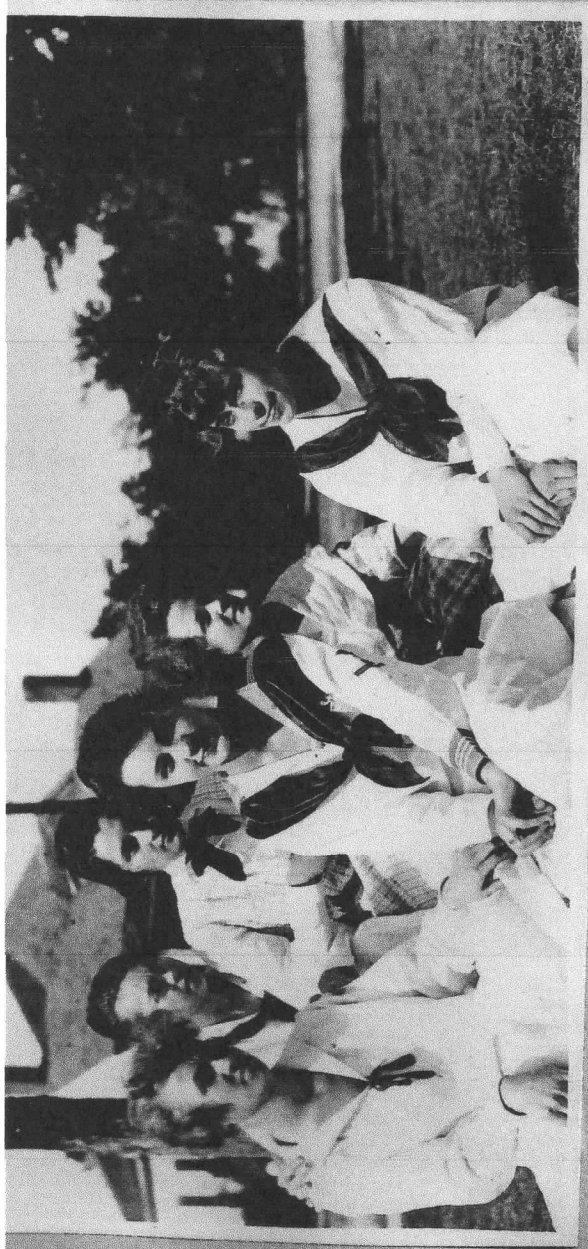

Elsie Nicholas

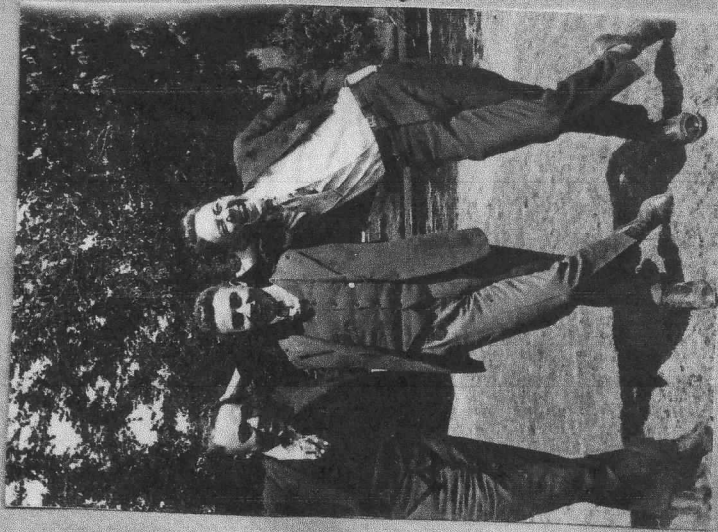

Jordan Barton

The three sports
of the class:

1. Eugene Carothera
2. Hearn White
3. Max Mains

6. Arnel Ungar
7. Howell Miller
8. Max Mains
9. Hearn White
10. Eugene Carothera

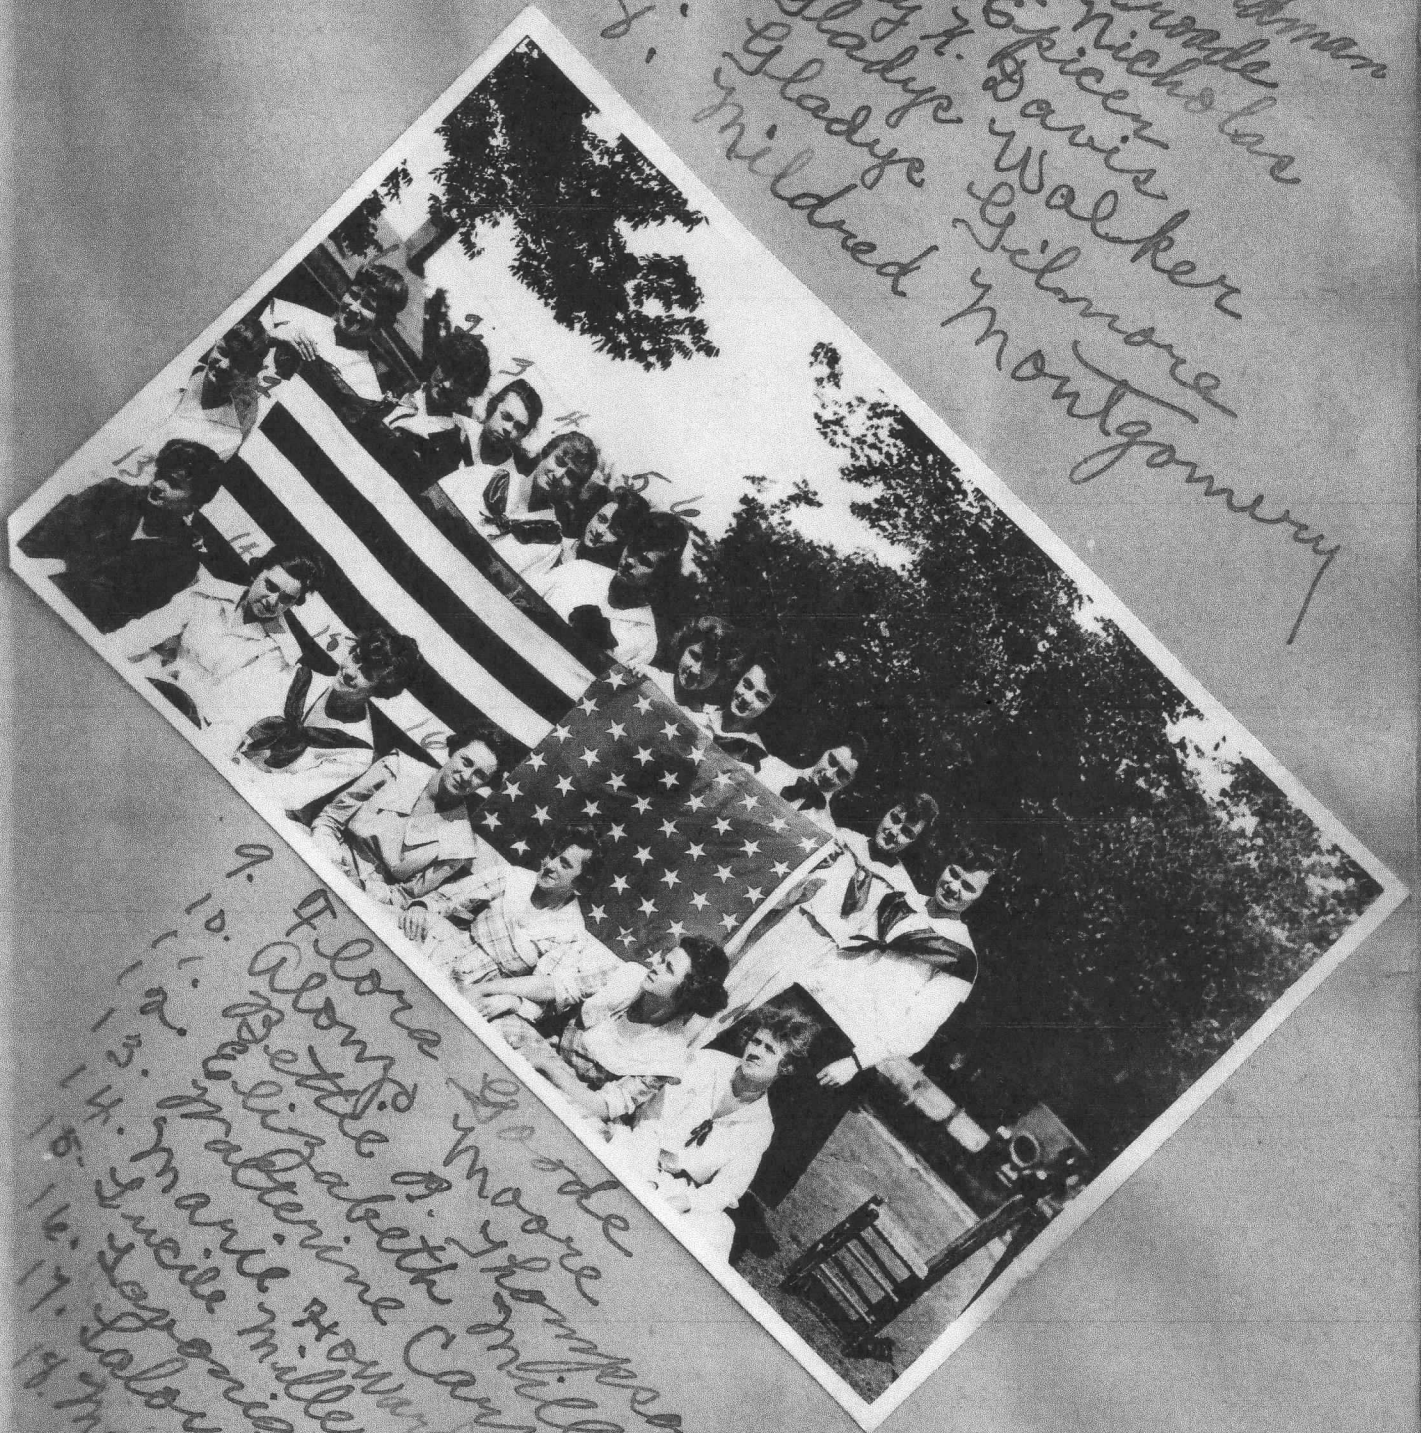

1. Beckett Howorth
2. John Hugh England
3. Jordan Barton
4. Tom Brothers Kimbrough
5. Silas Thompson

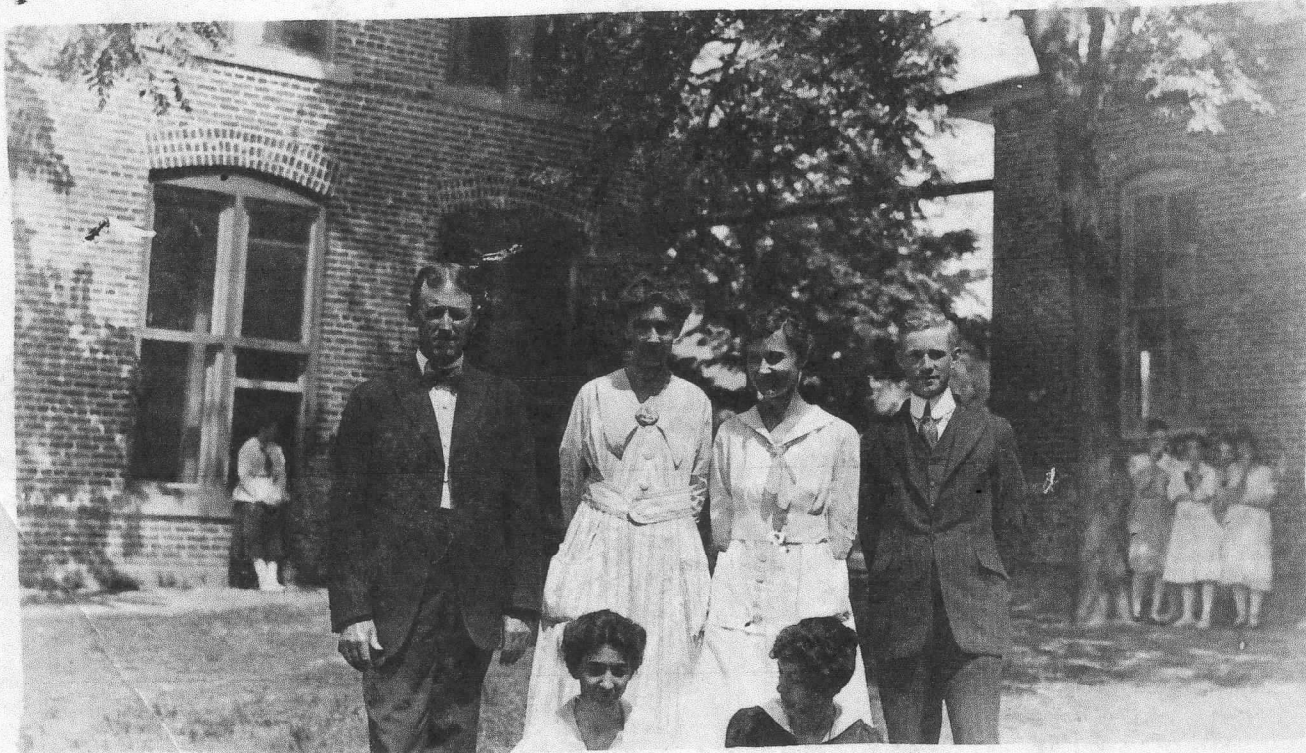

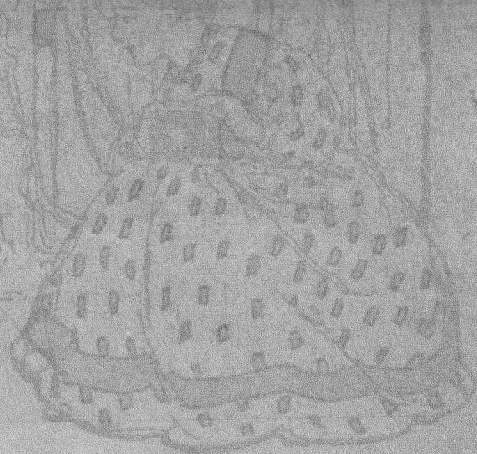

6. Axel Unger
7. Howell Miller
8. Max Maine
9. Dean White
10. Eugene Carothers

Class Photographs

1. Annie M. Steadman
 2. Mary Eckroade
 3. Lottie Nicholas
 4. Lucy T. Spicer
 5. Gladys Davis
 6. Gladys Walker
 7. Mildred Gilmore
 8. Montgomery

9. Flora
 10. Alona
 11. Dottie
 12. Lillian
 13. Marie
 14. Lucile
 15. Lillian
 16. Lillian
 17. Lillian
 18. Lillian
 19. Lillian

The High School Faculty
standing, from left to right:

J. H. Woodward, Supt.

Miss L. E. Hawkins, Hall Teacher

Carita Brinker, History

Prof. Leland Hume, Mathematics

sitting: Miss Kate Clisby, Latin

.. Florence Leslie, English