THE IMPORTED HORSE

THIS most beautiful horse, and successful, ra-cer, the winner of thirty races at the most fash topable courses, and against the best horses in the Kingdom of England, is in fine health and spirits; and will make his next season at my stable five miles south-west of Somerville, Fayette. County, Tennessee, and will cover mares at $60 the season, payable the 25th of December next, for which sum a note must be sent with each mare, or given before she is taken away, by every person living out of the county of Fayette; $100 to insure a mare to be in foal, payable when it is ascertained the mare is in foal or parted to the groom in every case. The season will commence the 16th of February and end the 16th of July. The expenses for keeping mares must invariably be paid when they are sent for, or they will not be delivered until that is done. They will be pastured and well fed with done. They will be pastured and well fed with grain at one dollar and fifty cents per week, servants boarded gratis.

The mares which may have failed to prove in fool to Corones the season of 1839, may be put servation; land districts for each charge this season, provided the season of the government of 1839 has been paid.
