DOINGS IN CONGRESS.—We feel that we have a right to congratulate our readers on the first step made by the House of Representatives in the business proper of the Extra Session, by the passage of the bill uniung the measures of the distribution of the proceeds of the sales of lands among the States, and a general proscriptive right of pre-emption to settlers on the public lands. There are some defects, perhaps, in the details of the bill, which it may be in power of the Senaté to remedy. But, even with all its faults upon its head, we rejoice in its passage, as it establishes a principle (in our opinion) of vital importance. Its passage proves besides -- what had become almost a matter of doubt among the people—that the donse of Representatives has not lost all capacity of action; and that is something

We consider this Land Bill as one of a Fries which are, or are not, to signalize this ession of Congress as one of the most im-Portant and most beneficial ever held. But, hether the residue of the series be matur-wor not, the passage of this bill alone would tinguish the present Congress in the Na

a number of Whigs, it will be seen, yo-Wainst this measures all nine of the resentatives from Georgia, for ex-
