We ask you, if when crediting ur neighbor, you do not add an additional price, consequence of the valuation law-as confince is the fountain of credit, so is a well regated system of collection laws the source of slidence, and we are in favor of remodelour present laws, to have bearing on all sequent contracts, thereby, restoring to our te her former credit and standing.

With regard to the five millions of State ands sold by the Mississippi Union Bank, theheve that the State is legally and morwhound to pay them. Yet, we are of per point that the agitation of the question at time is premature and importic, and the shon is only made by designing politicians regain lost power, thinking thereby to dim public attention from the present situaon of the currency, the true and legitimate we before the people. No good can possibly sult by its present agitation. Your last lestature resolved that the State will pay the onds; the next may resolve that the State ill not .- Does that settle the question of bility on the part of the State for those ads? Surely not. Your legislature may on alternately deciding to pay and not to the bonds, until more money will be exnded in legislating than will pay the bonds, still the question will remain unsettled. or legislature cannot constitutionally alter change the contract, whether the holder of bonds is entitled to payment; is a quesof right, and can no more be constituhally settled by the people, than can dract between individuals.

The liability of the State is purely a legal stion, and its settlement belongs excluely to the chancery court of the State, as be seen by reference to your constituhand laws; and whenever the question is mitted to the proper tribunal, we have an ling confidence that the freemen of Mis-

ATTENTION CANDIDATES!

From this time until the election, we shall keep constantly on hand Election Tickets. of every kind, which can be had upon moderate terms.

The contest is waxing warmer as the election approaches,-we are looking for mobs Bullies

We had a stabbing and bruising affair in our town on Wednesday last,-no lives lost, but both dangerously wounded.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Whig members of Congress have issued an address to the American People. We shall publish it in our next.

Congress adjourned on monday the 13th inst.

Those who are in the habit of indulging themselves in the luxury of an excellent Cigar can be supplied at L. Cage &co., Drug Store, they having received a new supply.

The Candidates of both parties are busily engaged in canvassing the "Empire County." If Joseph Mathews gets to Jackson again and can succeed in mutilating the county, Marshall will no longer be looked to, as the " Empire county." come out Jo. with that certificate you told us of, and your letter to McRunnells, or we are bound to distrust you on the subject. As "money makes the mare go," and as it is the subject you are harping upon, doubtless you would like to enhance the value of your property and build up Salem.

It is believed that it would be a reflection upon the political morals of the county, if Mathws beats such a man as Alexande B. Lane for the ## HON. JACOB THOMPSON.

Mr. Thompson stated in his speech in this place, that such an enormone tax was imposed upon tes and coffee, that a purshaser had to give one bag in the purchase of every five. Now, it curns out that tea, and coffee is admitted beretofore, free of duty. But it is useless to detect him one misrepresentation, he will make another, and another as long at he thinks he can get one voter to believe like.
