

Courtesy of the Tishomingo County Historical & Genealogical Society
Original files are housed in the John Marshall Stone Research Library
Tishomingo County Archives & History Museum
203 East Quitman Street
Iuka, MS 38852
Phone: 662-423-3500
E-mail: tcarchives@nadata.net
URL: <http://www.rootsweb.com/~mstchgs/>

TCHGS COPYRIGHT NOTICE: In keeping with our policy of providing free information on the Internet, materials may be freely used by non-commercial entities, as long as this message remains on all copied material, AND permission is obtained from the contributor of the file.

These electronic pages may NOT be reproduced in any format for profit or presentation by other organizations. Persons or organizations desiring to use this material for non-commercial purposes MUST obtain the written consent of the contributor OR the legal representative of the submitter and contact the listed Tishomingo County Archives & Historical Society (TCHGS) with proof of this consent.

C. N. Holley—Obituary Booneville, Miss., September 11, 1934

This obituary was found listed on page 6 in the minutes of the 88th Annual Session of the New Hope Association of Primitive Baptist which was held with Little Flock Church in Tishomingo County, Mississippi, September 7-9, 1934.

By request of New Hope Association, I will try to write the obituary of Brother C. N. Holley, a member and deacon of New Hope Church. Brother Holley was born August 1, 1860; was married to Miss Katie Bonds, December 1, 1881. He died June 16, 1934. There were nine children born to Brother Holley and wife; four children and wife preceded him in death. Sister Holley died in 1918.

Brother Holley and wife joined New Hope Church in September 1905; was baptized by our late pastor, Elder John T. Blanchard, the fourth Sunday in September 1905. He was elected to the office of deacon on the fourth Sunday in August, being the 28th day, 1910, and lived faithful to the trust that was rested in him until death. He was a good, meek man; none among men excelled him in meekness and humbleness. The community has lost a good neighbor, the county a good citizen, and the church one of its most devoted members. As he lived, he died in the faith of God's elect.

Brother Holley made his own arrangements for his funeral on Saturday before the fourth Sunday in May, about three months before his death. He told the Moderator of the church that he didn't feel like he would live long, and requested that elder J. M. Bullard and the writer preach his funeral. And he was buried the third Sunday in June 1934, and leaves to mourn his loss his three sons, Lou, Emit, and Plumer; two daughters, Mrs. Luther Taylor, Mrs. Auston Smith; one brother, Sill Holley; two sisters, Mrs. Jacie Bonds and Mrs. Pernecie Smith of Arkansas; besides a host of relatives and friends. This article submitted in loving memory of dear Brother Holley.

Elder E. W. Shackelford