Local News

Mr. J.H. Scruggs has recently moved here from Vicksburg, and has gone into business in the Massey block. Mr. Scruggs is a Tishomingo County boy and his friends will be glad to know that he has returned to his old home.

Mr. Charles Statham has closed out his Variety Store here and he and Mrs. Statham left Friday for Memphis where he will embark in a similar business.

Mr. Charles Harris noted traveler and inventor, stopped off in Iuka Tuesday to see his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. W.F. Bonds. Mr. Harris has toured the entire globe three times and has just returned from a trip to South America, He is on his way to South Carolina where he has business interests. This is a first trip to see his relatives in 34 years. Mr. Harris speaks seven languages fluently, and is quite an interesting storyteller.

J.W. Scott of the Second District is a candidate for Tax Assessor. Mr. Scott is at present principal of Hubbard Salem School. He is an educator of ability, a splendid citizen, and a thorough gentleman and in every way qualified to fill the position that he seeks at the hands of the voters. Having made the race for Tax Assessor four years ago, he is well known to the people of the county and we feel needs no recommendation from us. Remember his candidacy on Election Day.

Mr. D.L. Anderson again wishes to announce to the voters of the First District that he is a candidate for Supervisor. Mr. Anderson has held this office two terms and knows every detail of the business. He has been a resident of the county for the past fifty years and his previous experiences in this office fit him for the place because he know the county's needs like it used to be when he was the champion fox hunter, but he is still lively and can talk entertainingly with his friends.

Rev. G.W. Gardner, of Elm, Miss. was in town Monday and stated that last Sunday he organized a Sunday School at Barnes Chapel with 14 students, and the following officers elected: Charles Wood, superintendent; D.L. Wood, secretary and Ed Hicks, teacher.
