LOOSE MULES CAUSE WRECK

Cheerleaders Returning from Vardaman Hit Pair Near Pontotoc

A pair of mules loose on the highway near Pontotoc was the cause for a near-serious wreck last Friday night.

The Iuka school cheerleaders, returning from the Iuka-Vardaman football game riding with C. E. (Strutt) Edmondson narrowly escaped serious injury with the new 1959 Chevrolet, belonging to Mr. Edmondson, struck the mules on highway 15 about ten miles south of Pontotoc. Immediately after the collision, the girls were examined by a physician at the Pontotoc hospital. None were seriously hurt.

Receiving minor cuts and scratches were Barbara Flynt, Sara Dean, Janie James and Sue Price. Melba Honeycutt and Janice Davis got small amounts of glass in their eyes. Strutt and two of the girls, Linda McAlister and Linda Daniel, were unhurt.

Extensive damage was done to the auto. One mule was killed instantly.

MAYOR PROCLAIMS SEAL SALE
Nov. 16–Dec. 31 Designated as Seal Sale Days

John H. Allen, Mayor of Iuka, has issued a proclamation making November 16 through December 31 Christmas Seal Sale Days. He urges that all Tishomingo Countians contribute generously to the Christmas Seal Sale, pointing out that 94 cents of every dollar raised will be used to fight tuberculosis in this county and state.

The Tishomingo County Tuberculosis Association carries on a year-round program of tuberculosis control made possible by funds received during the Christmas Seal Sale. The association's program of case-finding, health education, rehabilitation, research and patient services is speeding the day when tuberculosis will no longer take its toll in the home of our community.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, tuberculosis is still in 1959 the nation's No. 1 infectious disease, and

WHEREAS, unknown cases of tuberculosis in Tishomingo County constitute a public health threat which demands an intensive case-finding program, and

WHEREAS, the year-round program of the Tishomingo County Tuberculosis Association, supported solely by the Annual Christmas Seal Sale, is aimed at prevention and control of tuberculosis through health education, rehabilitation, and patient services;

NOW THEREFORE, I, John H. Allen, Mayor of Iuka, urgently request every citizen of Tishomingo County to contribute generously to the Christmas Seal Sale; and I do hereby proclaim November 16 through December 31 to be Christmas Seal Sale Days.

TEEN TALK

By Judy Holtsford

Hi Gang!

Last Saturday a bus load of junior high and high school students attended high school day at Ole Miss and saw the Ole Miss-Chattanooga game . . . Rosaland Moser and Sue King were guests of Roger Clark and his roommate at the dance on Friday night and for the game Saturday . . . Faye Carmichael attended the game with Jim Chambers . . . I know all of the gang had a swell time!

Saturday afternoon, Glenda Foote and I helped Nancy Robinson celebrate her 17th birthday at home . . . We laughed, talked, and enjoyed roasting marshmallows in the fireplace . . . Mrs. Robinson fixed a scrumptious supper for us and we really had a good time.

The Beauty Revue is tomorrow night (Friday) so all of you shag over to the auditorium to see the most beautiful of Iuka High crowned.

The Who's Who of I.H.S. were chosen last week . . . They are: Most Likely to Succeed, Faye Carmichael and Ben Kitchens; Most Intellectual, Dorothy Bacon and Benji Gaines; Most Talented, Glenda Foote and David Reynolds; Most Popular, Rosaland Moser and Eddie Byrom; Best All Around, Pat Foote and Mac Milligan; Friendliest, Nancy Robinson and Lloyd Murrah; Wittiest, Linda Warren and Alton Yow; Best Athletes, Ora Lee Davis and Jimmy Robertson; Best Dressed, Brenda Carson and Genie Foote; Most Dependable, Janis Davis and Hugh Van Presley; Most Charming and Most Handsome, Linda McAlister and Tommy Jack Ramsey; Cutest Girl and Boy, Judy Holtsford and Larry Brown.

Congratulations to Gloria Edmondson who celebrated her 13th birthday on Monday of this week . . . A few of Gloria's closest friends came by the house during the evening to wish her Happy Birthday.

The second meeting of the Iuka High School Beta Club was held Tuesday. The club has elected as its sponsor, Mrs. Minor Nixon. Newly elected officers for the 1959-60 term are: President, Benji Gaines; vice president, Glenda Foote; secretary, Faye Carmichael; treasurer, Dorothy Bacon; reporter, Pat Foote; and song leader, Nancy Robinson.

The program was given, new members were voted upon and plans were made for the State Beta Convention which will be held February 12-13 in Jackson.

Students at Tishomingo High School recently elected the following to "Who's Who": Mr. and Mrs. T.H.S., Joe Wilemon and Hildred Parker; Mr. and Miss T.J.H.S., Kenny Hodgkin and Judy Young; Most dignified senior, Martha Finch; most likely to succeed, Nellie Ruth Trimm; friendliest boy and girl, William Myrl Tennyson and Sue Nell Gray; wittiest boy and girl, Larry Eaton and Geraldine Scruggs; most versatile boy and girl, Wayne Martin and Patsy Ward; best dressed boy and girl, Howard Culp and Peggy Ward; most athletic boy and girl, Jerry Rushing and Margaret Underwood; cutest girl and boy, Tommy Carr and Edith Nichols. Those elected by the teachers were: Most intellectual boy and girl, Noonan Greene and Ida Nell Pace; best citizen, Linda Gray.

A bunch of the boys went to Selmer, Tuesday night to see Selmer's first basketball game . . . The fellows saw Ruthie Thomas and all of the Selmer crowd . . . They really had a blast!

Well gang that's all of the chatter for now . . . I'll be seein' you at the Beauty Revue tomorrow night when I will crown the "Most Beautiful" of I.H.S. for '59! See ya 'round!

Who said love, honor and carry water?

Who wants to carry water? You don't have to pump and carry water or rely on an outdated pump that gives you only half the water you need. A modern Myers OLYMPIAN pump carries the water for you. Puts it where you want it, quickly, quietly, economically. As your Authorized Myers Pump Dealer, we'll engineer a water supply system tailored exactly to your needs. Easy terms available.
