Report Death of Men and Women in Service to Local Board

Many men and women from Mississippi are lost each month now by death in the service of our country as the tempo of the war has increased.

Every citizen of every community is anxious to assist the returning veteran and also to aid and comfort the loved ones of those who will never return.

Governor Thomas L. Bailey is most anxious to express the appreciation of Mississippi to the families of those who have died in the service, as well as to offer aid and comfort to those remaining loved ones.

A canvass is being made in each community of the state, through the local boards of selective service, to be certain that no names are being overlooked as the list grows. As chairman of the local board No. 1 of Tishomingo County, Iuka, Mississippi, I urge each citizen of this community to report by card or letter the name of any man or woman from this community who has died in service during this war. It is also necessary to show the name of the nearest relative, if known. Mail this at once to the office of the local board of selective service.

Methodist News

E. G. Mohler, Pastor

Music and song service followed by Holy Communion Sunday, 11 o'clock hour. We will also give a short report of a year's work and conference items of interest.

With your faithfulness and cooperation, Mr. R. A. McRee, Treasurer, reports for the official board that our church has met all financial obligations for the year. Fine, very fine.

We would be less than human did we not appreciate fully the many expressions of confidence and affection which have come to us as we go to conference. We pray daily to be worthy of your friendship, love, and respect. You are above the average in intelligence, culture, and character and deserve the best. May God bless, and sustain each of you.

To those of you who have loved ones in the service of our country and humanity, try to be brave, courageous, trustful, remembering that others in every locality of our country are bearing the same burdens, sharing the same anxieties. In faith cast thy burdens upon the Lord and pray daily for grace to meet bravely any future event. We lighten our burdens in lifting the burdens of others. His "yoke is easy" when we lift the yokes of fellow sufferers. We are all sharing in the redemption of the world. Be brave.

Pvt. W. H. (Bill) Lomenick Killed in Action

Pvt. William H. Lomenick, one of Tishomingo County's most popular and loveable young men was killed in action on October 2, 1944, in Germany, according to notice received by his wife, Mrs. Dora R. Lomenick. This fine young man was called to help defend his country on Dec. 29, 1943. Inducted in the Army and on Jan. 21st, 1944, he returned to Camp Shelby, from there he was sent to Camp Blanding, Fla., where he received his basic training. He chose the Infantry, the branch of service his grandfathers W. A. Leiumons and J. A. Lomenick chose in the Civil War, and with a perfect soldier's records, he was commended many times by his officers. He was one of the 10,000 soldiers to march out from the camp on Bivovac. It goes down in the history of this being the largest group to go out from Camp Blanding, Fla.

He spent 21 days home on furlough with his family and loved ones before reporting to Ft. Geo. G. Meade, Md., on July 21, 1944. He reported in a short time after he arrived. He sailed, landing somewhere in England. Immediately he began to travel through France, Belgium, Luxembourg, and Germany. Bill, as he was so widely known, was courteous, cheerful, and sympathetic toward everyone, young and old, white or colored.

He was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Lomenick. He was born Sept. 18, 1912. A native of Tishomingo County. Attended high school at Iuka and Tishomingo, having graduated from the T.C.A.H.S. in 1931-32. He was a great lover of athletics, having played on the football team at both schools, and helped win many hard games for his school. He was a responsible, fair player, honest, truthful, cheerful and affectionate toward his comrades. He also represented the T.C.A.H.S. in N.E. State Field Meet in 1931-32 in athletics, where he won 2nd place. He was indeed an ideal citizen, law-abiding, helping to make the world better by cheering someone who was sad, by his expressions of smiles and words.

After finishing high school, he held many responsible positions, among them were employee of TVA, Forest Ranger of Tishomingo County, and for past year, before entering the Army, he was an employee of the McCloskey Shipyard, Tampa, Fla.

Bill was a consistent member of the Pleasant Hill Methodist Church for the past 15 years. He married Miss Dora Robinson of Iuka, on Nov. 6, 1937, to this union was born a sweet beautiful son, who is now 13 months of age and bears his father's name, William Harold Lomenick, Jr., and known as "Little Billie." Besides his wife and baby, he leaves father and mother and two sisters, Mrs. Dimple Malone, Tishomingo; Miss Avie Lou Lomenick, Iuka, R-1; and nieces and nephews and a host of friends.

He died for his country giving his heroic service even unto death.

Thanks

We are so grateful to our many friends for their comforting words and expression of sympathy to us in our dark hour of sorrow, and to Dr. Bostick for his services and consoling words as now, our loved one sleeps in the war-stricken land overseas. May God bless each one and keep you ever is our prayer.

Jourdan, Jr., assisted her sisters and Mrs. Harris Carmichael entertain about a hundred guests at one of the most brilliant teas of the past year. Meeting the guests at the door, Mrs. Ruth McKnight was dressed in black crepe, sequin trimmed, with a rose corsage in her hair. Assisting her was Mrs. J. H. Allen, who wore a black velvet model with a single red rose adornment. In the receiving line, Mrs. Lucien W. Carmichael wore black satin, and a shoulder corsage of pink sweetheart roses with baby's breath. Mrs. G. T. Carmichael was modeled in powder blue wool and her corsage was pink roses and carnations with white baby's breath. Mrs. L. F. Carmichael was attired in a pink wool jersey model and wore pink roses and baby's breath. Mrs. J. C. Jourdan's gown was black crepe and her corsage was red roses and snapdragons. Mrs. J. H. Webb was attired in black, and wore pink snapdragons.

In the living room, the console table held a bowl of mixed fall flowers, and the mantle was exquisitely adorned with a wide bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums, spreading almost the entire length of the mantel.

Seated at the beautifully appointed tea table, which had as its centerpiece an exquisite bowl of white azalea mums, pink and white roses, snapdragons, and fern, surrounded with silver candlesticks holding long white tapers, placed on an imported cut work cloth, were Mrs. Harris Carmichael, who wore black, and who served coffee. Mrs. J. A. Roane was gowned in brown crepe, and wore a corsage of snapdragons, tied with gold and who poured tea. Edmondson

Little Miss Linda Lee Edmonson, who celebrated her seventh birthday recently, at Charleston, S.C., is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Edmondson of Orange City, Florida, and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Edmondson of Iuka. Little Linda Lee is now living with her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Daniel, at Maud, Ala., where she is attending school. She spent the past weekend in Iuka. She is generally conceded as her grandfather Edmondson's "favorite" grandchild, and has perhaps earned that coveted position, by her desire to be with him. Since she was a small child, she has made many trips with her grandfather, and is a perfect companion for such events.

Linda Lee has many fine characteristics, but perhaps the most significant one is her adult way of discussing her plans and needs with Mr. Edmondson. An interesting little incident is quoted fondly by him, which show her respect for her word and for his promises. Asking her grandfather for a sum of money one day to make a purchase, she returned shortly and handed him the full amount of money (he had given her more than enough). When Mr. Edmondson questioned her she stated, "But, Granddaddy, it cost ten cents more than I told you." Pardonable pride can be shown in this early indication of inherent honesty.

This young lady's father is in the service and stationed at Deland, Florida. Her mother is the former Montez Daniel, of Maud, and is well known in Iuka, where she has spent much time.

Letters to the Editor

Orlando, Fla., Sept. 12, 1944

Editor Raymond Hamilton
The Vidette, Iuka, Miss.

Dear Mr. Hamilton:

Men in public life frequently find themselves the target of tall and untrue stories in circulation. Under ordinary circumstances, it is wise to treat such matters with silent contempt. But where a minister of the gospel is concerned, where his character and standing is in question, notice must be taken! When a minister's good name before the public is affected, then his usefulness as a man of God is impaired. So I ask you to publish this.

It has been reported to me that there is a story being circulate din and around Iuka, to the effect I am not in good standing with the Florida Baptist State Convention. For this reason the Secretary of the Florida Sunday School Board and a leading Florida pastor have been asked to prepare letters concerning my standing; such letters be sent to you for publication that I be vindicated. The head of our State Convention also would have been so asked, but the office is at present vacant.

Thanking you for this favor of publishing the letters, I am
Sincerely yours,
Lloyd L. King

Lakeland, Fla., Oct. 21, 1944

To whom it may concern:

I am glad to give my unqualified approval to Reverend Lloyd L. King, Baptist evangelist of Orlando, Florida, who has held very successful revivals in our church, the Southside Baptist of Lakeland, Florida. In addition to Southside, I have had Brother King with me in other pastorates with the finest of spiritual and numerical results. No evangelist, to my knowledge, is more sincere nor more successful in brining the Gospel, particularly to young people. I commend his work, his character, his doctrine, and his cooperation with all of our organized Baptist work. he enjoys the confidence of his Florida brethren, and his ministry is rapidly expanding to other states.

For other details, please write me.

Sincerely,
James S. Day, Jr., Pastor
Southside Baptist Church, Lakeland, Florida
Approved Worker of the Florida Baptist Convention

Jacksonville, Fla., Sept. 16, 1944

Editor Raymond Hamilton
The Vidette, Iuka, Miss.

Dear Sir:

I am asked as a friend to give you the standing of Rev. Lloyd King, 1414 S. Osceola St., Orlando, Florida, in our Florida Baptist Convention work.

For something like 20 years, Rev. Lloyd King has been acceptable as a singer and as a Baptist minister and preacher into any and every Baptist Church in our State.

The first part of his career was as an evangelistic singer; he took some seminary training in the Baptist Bible Institute in New Orleans, and he and his wife came back to Florida to live and he became a popular evangelistic singer and preacher in our state.

He has held revivals in many of our Baptist churches from end to end of our state and these revivals have been in small churches, medium-sized churches, and large churches. he is especially gifted in handling large numbers of children at the story telling hour and especially gifted as a singer and song leader and as a preacher.

Brother Lloyd King stands high with the Baptist Headquarters in Jacksonville and in all of our State Baptist work.

Yours sincerely,
Dr. W. W. Willian, Secty.

To the Honorable Board of Pardons:

Your petitioner would most respectfully show that at the 1932, January term of the Circuit Court of Tishomingo County, he was convicted on a charge of rape and sentenced to serve his natural life in the State Penitentiary and he has been in the penitentiary since that time.

He would most respectfully show that the evidence on which he was convicted was very weak; that he has served more than 10 years; that he has been a model prisoner and under the law he is subject to parole;

Wherefore, he asks this Honorable Board to recommend and grant him an indefinite suspension of sentence.

Respectfully submitted,

Babe Alexander

Tea Table Chatter

by Tina

It's nice, being up in the part of town, where friendly Iukans go by, and give one a cheerful smile through our front windows.

Mrs. Maggie Whitten gave us one that looked special, to us. Throughout the day, they come to brighten up what this week appeared to be a deluge of news material — and, of course, Tina's in a typical tempest, but a good one, over the prettiest of all teas at Gladys Jourdan's home Tuesday. It's been so-o-o long since we've felt so festive, seen so many beautifully dressed party-goers, and met two lovelier girls. The L. F. Carmichaels can swell up just as big as they like over those daughters, their boys have presented them — the whole town will agree — and I think Iukans feel a pardonable pride in having Cleo and Sue become a part of us by their marriages. Tina hears by the bird route that both Grandmother Webb and Grandfather Carmichael have been beaming since their arrival, and it is wonderful, both for them and the girls to be joined together in this new family relationship. Well, as to the tea, while it is carried in full elsewhere, Tina just wants to say, for the benefit of readers who were unable to attend, that our vocabulary is not adequate for either the mantel in the living room or the tea table — one just has to see such color, as those bronze chrysanthemums, and the beauty of that table centerpiece, to appreciate it. Gladys and her sisters are due extravagant commendation for giving Iuka women such a lovely occasion.

Tina has another ambition fulfilled this week — the illusive Nell (Shockley) Herritage has come to life — for several visits we have missed each other on a thin line, but this time, the editor made the presentations with gusto — and Tina found her delightful, both just herself, and in her love for her old home — you know, its these people who go away, and live elsewhere, who really put the glow on the old hometown — one who lives always here or there forgets the little intangibles that make home what the poets write about (usually, after they leave.)

Dorothy Keyes, guest of the Harry Grahams during furlough of their son, James Harry, is another very attractive visitor — bright, with a very pleasant voice, she hails from down in Birmingham — Louise Womack over from Booneville for a short weekend was introduced to Iuka with a very pretty party at the R. J. Brown home with her hostess Voto Ramey doing the entertaining. Louise, Physical Education teacher in the Booneville High School, is “out-door type” and made a hit with every person who met her. Charming was the first thing Tina thought when she met her, and further conversation added to the impression — traveled, well read, she’s a conversationalist worth cultivation. A big welcome will await her next visit.

there are several telephone operators to whom Tina wants to say a public “thank you.” For months we have been aware of the many little kindnesses they have given us, without being called on for them, and with a really helpful intent. Strange, but Tina never recognizes them when they are “on the board” so that this just goes to the whole force.

Many times we have been impressed with the inherent honesty of our community, but yesterday “stealing my way” down the alley, I had to smile at all the open bins of coal lining that “thoroughfare.” No place else I’ve lived would people trust their coal to the open road like that — those baskets of produce that are placed in front of the merchants stores at night — at whatever time the truck arrives, well, long may such an atmosphere prevail!

Now Tina ends on a note of sorrow. Word came Tuesday of the total destruction by fire of the house and all its contents belonging to the John Dunbars of Greenville. Elizabeth is daughter of the E. G. Mohlers, and this tragedy has distressed friends of the family here. Such a total loss — not one thing saved, and we know how long it will take to even regain a semblance of a complete home after such a disaster. Sympathy and in many instances a more practical expression, will doubtless come to them from all their friends, and as so often happens, they will discover the worth of genuine friends during these dark days.
