New Hope Presbyterian Church

A concise and authentic history of New Hope Presbyterian Church was written by Mrs. Maud McCord Settle and compiled from the church registers from the time of the church's organization to the present date.

Tishomingo County, Mississippi
May 26, 1838

A few Presbyterians convened at a school house near Troy—a place now known as Danville—and considered the organization of a Presbyterian church and resolved it found one. The following people gave in their certificates of membership: Jacob Hinkle and wife, Mary Ann; Ann Gamble; Margaret Stafford; Thomas Mays and wife, Pamela.
