Oakhaven

Iuka, Miss.

1857—property purchased from J. C. Terry.

1882—a bungalow was built on the site of the first Baptist Church in Iuka by Samuel Dewoody and was later purchased by Governor John M. Stone. Later the home passed into the hands of T. H. Elam, an attorney, and upon his death in 1918, an outside doorway had to be enlarged to accommodate his casket.
